Program Summary

The Eldon School District/PAVE AmeriCorps will have AmeriCorps members provide academic intervention support and tutoring for at-risk students to increase the chance for success in school, as well as support healthy futures activities designed to increase physical activity, in the district's five campuses: Eldon South Elementary, Eldon Upper Elementary, Eldon Middle School, Eldon High School, and Mustang Academy. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for improved math and literacy scores for Kindergartners-8th graders. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 150 volunteers, who will be engaged in academic support activities and activities designed to meet student and family needs. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
